To make available to church members and others in the community an opportunity to seek God's healing for emotional and spiritual wounds through prayer and Christian ministry.

"So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed" - John 8:36

*"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free.
Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery"*

Many individuals live lives of quiet desperation, dominated by fears, hurts, grief, failures, broken relationships, addictions, and hopelessness.

Freedom Ministry would like to help by making available an opportunity to seek God's healing for spiritual / emotional wounds and other life dominating issues.

Individuals serving in this ministry are considered lay ministers, though in some cases they may be from pastoral, nursing, or professional counseling backgrounds

How Does it Work?

Our focus will be on connecting you with the Lord in such a way that Biblical truths cease to be mere intellectual concepts and become life transforming principles. Normally, a team of two persons will minister, one leading the session and the other serving as a prayer intercessor.

How Do I Get Started?

Contact the Freedom Ministry office at (479) 855-1119, you will be connected with a voice mail system. Leave your first name and phone number on the voice mail box. Someone from the ministry will contact you to arrange for a time to meet. Sessions will take place at the church in a room set apart for this ministry. Confidentiality concerning names and issues will be carefully observed.

How Much Does It Cost?

There are no charges for services rendered. However, should you desire to show appreciation, you may contribute to the church, mentioning Freedom Ministry in the memo.
